MY YARD

17/09/2014 – 09/11/2014

Opening: 16 September, 19.00

Regina Gallery is delighted to present a new project “My Yard ” by Semyon Faibisovich.

The exhibition shows a part of the new series ‘My Yard’, which is dominated by texture and landscape. Usually in my works there are people who are in the focus of attention, but here it has been shifted towards the environment surrounding them, its state, mood, etc. When people are present, they are absorbed by this environment themselves, contribute to it, turn out to be its natural part.

As a matter of fact the subject is the same: transparent textures of life around us, our existence in it. Negative aspects of this existence, that are currently developing, unfortunately, are partially balanced by the beauty of unimpressive, which saves the world as much as it can; they are mitigated by entropic charm of garbage, warmth and juiciness of these textures, reconciling us somehow with life.

Semyon Faibisovich

Semyon Faibisovich was born on 10 February, 1949 in Moscow into the family of an army officer. Graduated from Moscow Architectural Institute, worked as an architect in 1972 - 1988. In 1976 he began exhibiting graphics and then paintings in the basements of Malaya Gruzinskaya street, where in 1985 they attracted attention of dealmakers from New-York. Since 1987 his paintings have been shown widely in USA, and then in Western Europe and the USSR (Russia). In 1995 he exchanged art with literature, but in 12 years he came back to it. The artist has had more than 30 solo exhibitions and participated in key international art fairs. His works are included in the collections of the UK, Hungary, Germany, Poland, Russia, France, Switzerland and others. He lives and works in Moscow.
